

GEORGE WASHINGTON AND FRANCE: THE COMPLICATED RELATIONSHIP OF SISTER REVOLUTIONARIES

Learn about George Washington's complicated relationship with France after the Revolutionary War. Initially, Washington welcomed news of the French Revolution as the natural successor to the American Declaration of Independence. But as the French Revolution devolved into widespread violence, Washington sought to distance himself from his former ally. Dr. Chervinsky will reveal how France, and the complex details of the Franco-American alliance, shaped Washington's presidency and dominated the 1790s.

Special Guest Lecturer - Dr. Lindsay M. Chervinsky
Author of The Cabinet: George Washington and the Creation of an American Institution

THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 2021 7:00PM
VIRTUAL LECTURE

Tickets are $6 and can be purchased online via <https://shop.alexandriava.gov>

Alexandria-Caen
Sister City Committee